

PROTECTION OF LIFE AND PROPERTY IN CERTAIN PARTS OF IRELAND ACT, 1871.

COPY of ORDERS and REGULATIONS made by the Lord Lieutenant; and,
LIST of PERSONS detained under the WARRANT of the Lord Lieutenant under Part I. of the "Protection of Life and Property in certain Parts of Ireland Act, 1871."

ORDERS AND REGULATIONS

MADE by the LORD LIEUTENANT in pursuance of Section 9 of the "Protection of Life and Property in certain Parts of Ireland Act, 1871," for the Treatment, Management, and Maintenance, while in Custody, of Persons Arrested and Committed to Prison under His Excellency's Warrant, under the authority of Part I. of the said Act.

I.

THE following Orders and Regulations shall be supplemental to, and, so far as they are inconsistent with, shall be substituted for, the By-laws, Rules, and Regulations which may for the time being be in force in any gaol or prison with respect to untried prisoners.

II. Reception of Prisoners.

These Orders and Regulations shall be read and explained for each prisoner on reception by the officer in charge of the gaol or prison for the time being (who in these Orders and Regulations is termed "the Governor"). Every article in the prisoner's possession, except his clothes, as hereinafter mentioned, shall, on his reception, be taken from him, and a receipt in writing given therefor by the Governor. Every article so taken shall be restored to the prisoner on liberation, or, in the event of his transfer to any other gaol or prison, shall be sent with him to the Governor of the same; but any money so taken may from time to time, on the prisoner's written request, be advanced by the Governor for any lawful purpose.

III. Examination by Medical Officer.

Each prisoner shall, on reception, be examined by the medical officer.

IV. Attendance at Divine Service.

The prisoners shall attend Divine service and religious instruction, if there be in connection with the gaol or prison a chaplain of the religious persuasion to which they state they belong, but they shall be kept apart from the convicted and other prisoners, and shall enter the place of worship last and leave it first.

V. Treatment in Hospital.

Prisoners in hospital shall be treated in a ward and exercised apart from the convicted and other prisoners.

VI. Baths.

Every prisoner shall, under such regulations as the medical officer shall approve, take a bath on his reception, and at least once a week from the beginning of April to the end of September, and once in each month from the beginning of October to the end of March.

VII. Misconduct of Prisoners.

All misconduct on the part of a prisoner shall be forthwith reported in writing, in the case of a county gaol, to the Governor, and in the case of a Government prison, to the Director, who respectively may inflict punishment therefor as hereinafter provided.

VIII. Diet.

Breakfast for every day in the week:—

12 ozs. bread and one pint of coffee, made from  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. of coffee,  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. of chicory, 1 oz. of molasses, and  $\frac{1}{2}$  pint of milk.

Dinner for four days in the week:—

2 lbs. potatoes,  $9\frac{1}{2}$  ozs. of beef, and one pint of soup, with 1 oz. of vegetables, and 1 oz. oatmeal.

Dinner for two days:—

12 ozs. bread and 1 pint coffee.

Dinner for one day:—

12 ozs. bread and  $\frac{1}{2}$  pint of milk.

Supper for every day in the week:

12 ozs. bread and 1 pint of tea.

This dietary may, however, be changed with the approval of the medical officer.

IX. Daily Routine.

Rise in the morning at half-past six o'clock in the summer, and at seven o'clock during the winter portion of the year.

Breakfast from nine to ten o'clock.

Out for exercise four hours daily; two hours before dinner and two hours after dinner. A prisoner, however, is not bound to take more exercise than he wishes.

Dinner from two to three o'clock.

Supper from half-past five to six o'clock.

To bed at half-past eight p.m. all the year round.

Divine service in chapel on Sundays and religious holidays.

X. Association.

Prisoners may be in association during exercise, and for any further period not exceeding six hours each day.

XI. Tobacco.

Prisoners who supply themselves with tobacco, or who are supplied by their friends, or who are supplied by the gaol or prison authorities under the direction of the medical officer, may smoke at any time during exercise in the open air.

XII. Books and Papers.

Books and papers which are private property, and have been approved by the Chaplain in a county gaol, or by the Director in a Government prison, may be lent by one prisoner to another, permission being first obtained from the Governor, but the gaol or prison authorities will not be responsible for any loss of or injury done to books thus lent. Books which have been so approved may be lent to prisoners by persons outside the gaol or prison. No books shall be sent out of the gaol or prison until after examination by the gaol or prison authorities.

XIII. Stationery.

Paper, pen, and ink for letter writing, and postage to the extent of one penny stamp daily, will be supplied by the gaol or prison authorities.

XIV. Letters.

Prisoners may write and receive letters without restriction as to number; but all letters to and from prisoners shall be opened, initialed, and read by the Governor, in the case of a county gaol, and by the Director, in the case of a Government prison; and if not approved of by such Governor or Director, shall be detained, and the prisoner informed of the reasons thereof, and if the prisoner shall so require, a report shall forthwith be made to the Chief or Under Secretary of such detention, with the reasons therefor.

XV. Diet from without the Prison.

Every prisoner may, at the expense of himself or his friends, be provided with food from without the gaol or prison, but such food must be delivered at the prison gate at the following and no other times, namely:—Breakfast at 8½ A.M.; Dinner at 1½ P.M.; Supper at 5 P.M.

XVI. Alk or Porter.

Every prisoner may, at the expense of himself or his friends, be provided from without the gaol or prison with one pint of ale or porter each day, but no greater quantity shall be permitted except on the written order of the medical officer.

XVII. Prisoners not to clean Cells.

No prisoner shall be compelled to wash, whitewash, or sweep his cell.

XVIII. Visits.

A. Each visit not to last longer than twenty minutes, and to take place between 10 A.M. and 2 P.M. No visits on Sundays.

B. All visits must be in the presence and bearing of a prison officer.

C. A prisoner under punishment cannot receive a visit.

D. A visit cannot be repeated by the same person sooner than after an interval of seven days; and not more than one person can be admitted at a time, but a prisoner may receive several visits on the same day.

E. In the case of a county gaol, the Governor, and in the case of a Government prison, the Director, may at their discretion respectively allow any prisoner to be visited by his wife, parent, child, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece, but no other person shall be permitted to visit a prisoner without the sanction in writing of the Chief or Under Secretary.

XIX. Clothes Washing and Repairs.

Every prisoner may retain his own clothes, which shall also be washed and repaired free of charge.

XX. Punishments.

For breach of any of the foregoing Orders and Regulations, or any By-Law, Rule, or Regulation mentioned in the first above Order, any prisoner may be punished by the Governor in a county gaol, or by the Director in a Government prison, in any one or more of the following ways, namely—by stoppage of exercise, of association, of visits, and of letters save on business, or by the following reduced diet for a week or lesser period, namely:—

Breakfast each day:—

12 ozs. bread and one pint coffee.

Dinner for two days:—

12 ozs. bread and 1 quart of soup, made  $\frac{1}{2}$  ox-head, 1 oz. vegetables and 1 oz. oatmeal.

Dinner for two days:—

12 ozs. bread and 1 pint coffee.

Dinner for two days:—

8 ozs. bread, 1 lb. potatoes, and 1 quart of soup.

Dinner for one day:—

12 ozs. bread and  $\frac{1}{2}$  pint of milk.

Supper for each day:—

8 ozs. bread and 1 pint of cocoa, made from  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. cocoa,  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. molasses, and  $\frac{1}{4}$  pint of milk.

Made by His Excellency at Dublin Castle, this 24th day of June 1871.
